Report description:

Premium cat food is set to observe sustained growth in 2023, driven by the pet humanisation trend, as well as the increased popularity of pet ownership amongst the younger generations since the onset of the pandemic. Mid-priced offerings still account for the majority of sales within both dry and wet cat food. However, particularly dynamic retail current value growth is expected for premium wet cat food in 2023. Cat food attributes and claims are beginning to mimic human food trends, as pet owners...
