Report description:

Gardening became a favourite pastime amongst many consumers during the pandemic, as people were confined to their homes, with few outside entertainment options available. In 2022, gardening saw declines in sales compared with the previous year in both current value terms and in value terms at constant 2022 prices, as cafes, restaurants, and other outside entertainment opportunities reopened. Nevertheless, sales remained higher by both measures in comparison with the pre-pandemic (2019) levels. S...
