Report description:

Gardening was the most dynamic area of home and garden in 2022 with most categories seeing double-digit growth in current value terms. During the pandemic a growing number of consumers started to show an interest in gardening as restrictions meant that for many people their gardens and outdoor spaces became something of a sanctuary. While restrictions were lifted in 2022 as COVID-19 fears subsided there remained an interest in gardening that had been cultivated during the pandemic. An increase i...
