Report description:

Value sales growth of home and garden in Singapore notably slowed in 2022 compared to the previous year. Singapore witnessed a major shift with pandemic restrictions easing in 2022, which contributed to this slowdown. Post-pandemic, local consumers started to spend greater time outside of their homes, as schools, offices and foodservice reopened. This drew the focus of their spending away from the home environment. In addition, economic instability and a higher inflation rate in Singapore compar...
