Report description:

The performance of home and garden in Turkey in 2022 was characterised by inordinately high inflation. According to OECD figures, the country witnessed an annual inflation rate of 73.2% in 2022, which resulted in a three-percentage point decline in consumer confidence. As such, current value growth was high across Turkey's entire home and garden industry; but actual demand was a different story, as high prices left little room in consumers' budgets for home and garden products, leading to a sign...
