Report description:

Home furnishings recorded a weak performance in 2022. Stagflation and a significant decline in the housing market were the biggest causes of this, as sales in Hong Kong are heavily linked to individuals buying new properties. Big-ticket furniture items with low replacement rates, such as living room furniture and wardrobes, were impacted as pressures on consumers' incomes prevented them from making discretionary purchases. Certain home furnishings, however, remained resilient. Sales of home offi...
