Report description:

While homewares registered double-digit current value growth, constant value sales fell slightly. Double-digit inflation, caused by the energy crisis stemming from the war in Ukraine, dampened constant value sales. Supply disruptions also led to price rises. In addition, with pandemic restrictions lifted in 2022, consumers resumed their out-of-home lifestyles, and as a result cooked and ate less at home, which also negatively impacted demand for homewares. That being said, kitchen was the best p...
