Report description:

Homewares in Turkey saw dynamic current value growth in 2022, but this was driven entirely by inordinately high inflation and price increases due to supply chain disruptions. Demand in the category in value terms at constant 2022 prices declined overall. In the face of high prices, consumers reduced the frequency with which they replaced dinnerware, amongst others. Furthermore, in the face of price increases for tin, aluminium, and other metal homewares due to supply chain issues, consumers ofte...
