Report description:

By the end of 2021 and during the first months of 2022, Spain had to restore some COVID-19 restrictions, due to the emergence of the more contagious Omicron variant of the virus. These restrictions focused on the use of masks outdoors, and the continued usage of masks inside establishments and on public transportation. While the return of curfews and gatherings did not affect most of Spain, some regions did impose more rigorous restrictions. For instance, the Catalan government continued to impo...
