Report description:

There was a slight decline in volume sales of cigarettes in Azerbaijan in 2022. The decline after stable dynamics in recent years can be attributed to increasing competition from alternative product types, which subdued retail demand for cigarettes. E-vapour products and heated tobacco products grew significantly in the year as they are perceived to be healthier alternatives to cigarettes. The convenience of use, variety of flavours, and availability of single-use closed systems further contribu...
