Report description:

Overall, in 2022, home and garden in Mexico registered a decline in demand at constant 2022 prices, with value sales in these terms well below pre-pandemic levels in this year. This can be attributed to various external factors, such as economic uncertainty and changes in consumer habits and lifestyles. The industry saw a rise in prices of commodities and labour, as well as supply chain disruptions in the wake of the pandemic in 2020 and 2021, followed by high inflation rates in 2022, causing a...
