Report description:

Ice cream is a hugely popular snack in Algerian, accounting for significant value sales, and is, in fact, one of the most popular snacks in Algeria, with volume sales supported by a hot climate. Despite this, in comparison to the previous year, ice cream is set to register lower retail volume growth in 2023, explained by the ongoing economic downturn, which is impacting living standards and disposable income levels. Given Algerians' tendency to be price-conscious, many households are either swit...
