Report description:

As with most other alcoholic drinks categories, RTDs registered a polarised performance in 2022. On one hand, following two straight years of solid growth, volume sales through the off-trade declined. On the other hand, on-trade demand continued to see a strong recovery, despite competition from bar-made cocktails. These polarised performances were driven by consumers returning to out-of-home activities and to the re-opening of non-dining nightlife on-trade establishments such as nightclubs, a f...
