Report description:

In 2022, the government imposed a new tax on heated tobacco products, adding 10% of the price towards comprehensive health insurance, in addition to the table tax, at EGP1,400/kg of tobacco. This contributed to the price growth for the category in terms of devices and sticks. As the government realised more of the benefits it could access from this industry, it took the decision to allow the import and commercialisation of e-vapour products. The government's decision comes as a support to legal...
