Report description:

Following the outbreak of COVID-19, sales of snacks are continuing to recover in Algeria . However, this recovery is hampered by the uncertain economic climate, which is leading consumers to adapt their purchasing habits. Algeria, already fragile economically, faced multiple crises over the review period, including political protests, the COVID-19 pandemic, and the international crisis driven by the war in Ukraine. As such, the Algerian economy continues to witness growing inflation in 2023, whi...
