Report description:

Following the dynamic growth seen in tobacco products sales in 2021, which helped the market recoup all the current value losses it suffered due to the pandemic in 2020, a much less dynamic performance was seen in current value terms in 2022, with volume sales declining in this year. The COVID-19 restrictions placed a major strain on legal sales of tobacco in 2020, strongly boosting illicit sales in this year. As the South Africa economy works to recover, the attraction of the illicit market rem...
