Report description:

Wine witnessed a partial recovery in volume terms in 2022, thanks to the relaxation of pandemic-related social distancing measures, which encouraged consumers to return to visiting on-trade outlets such as bars, restaurants and clubs. Sales were further boosted by the return of international tourism to the country, as much of the wine sold through the on-trade is purchased by foreign visitors in high-end restaurants. At the same time, on-trade channels actively engaged in promotional and marketi...
