Report description:

In 2022, there was a huge rise in demand, which the FIFA World Cup generated in the country. With over three million football fans visiting in November and December, all alcoholic drinks benefited from a sudden surge in consumption. Qatar is a conservative country when it comes to alcohol but relaxed some regulations during this time and created alcohol zones where drinking was permitted. However, alcohol was not allowed in football stadiums, where only non alcoholic beer was served, which still...
