Report description:

After being negatively impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic, alcoholic drinks in Sri Lanka faces a new set of challenges in 2022. Firstly, global inflation is causing prices to rise, which has led many consumers to become more price sensitive and prioritise more essential products, which alcoholic drinks are not. Likewise, due to the unstable economic environment, the government has implemented import regulations which has led to a shortage of imported products and raw materials needed for domestic...
