Report description:

Beer continues to lose market share to other types of alcoholic drinks, most notably RTDs and spirits. Almost all the categories within beer are in decline, with the only exception being non-alcoholic beer. The young population of the country is gradually moving away from beer to more exciting products offered within RTDs and spirits. Innovation remains low in the category, with very few or no new products entering the market. Non-alcoholic beer is gaining support due to increasing health consci...
