Report description:

In 2022, cider/perry in Bulgaria continued its upward trajectory, surpassing 2019 volume sales in the off-trade channel as open-air socialising, concerts, festivals and garden parties resumed post-pandemic. Meanwhile, record high current value sales were recorded, reflecting soaring inflation and the concomitant increases in average unit prices. The development of this category is a result of the global trend towards low-alcohol and long drinks, especially among younger and health-conscious cons...
