Report description:

Consumers have resumed their more active lifestyles outside the home since quarantine limitations were lifted, which has also affected their product preferences. This change has also had an impact on the ice cream category, with more people beginning to favour smaller formats. Because of their compact size and ability to readily satisfy consumers' needs for fast snacking as they resume an active lifestyle, bite-sized products have emerged as the top trend for 2023. Such products also have a heal...
