Report description:

Finns are amongst the biggest consumers of ice cream in Europe. While sales fluctuate according to whether the Nordic summer is warm or cool, it is noteworthy that Finns are widely known to indulge in ice cream in the winter, aiding sales on the landscape. In 2023, the unit prices of ice cream were forced upwards due to inflation and increasing production costs. This is leading to positive retail value growth on the landscape. Furthermore, despite price rises, ice cream has maintained its popula...
