Report description:

Unit prices of savoury snacks, in particular salty snacks, have continued to increase in 2023. This is being driven by steep increases in production costs due to escalating palm oil prices after Indonesia's export ban, and is expected to result in a dynamic increase in retail current value terms in the year overall. Palm oil is a key ingredient in the process of making savoury snacks such as potato chips and seafood snacks, therefore pushing up production costs. Manufacturers and retailers are a...
