Report description:

In 2023, snacks in Jordan is seeing impressive growth, benefiting from the end of the COVID-19 pandemic and return to normal. The return to schools and universities in particular is having a positive impact as students are the main consumers of snacks and often bring potato chips to snack on throughout their learning day. Additionally, ongoing population growth, the country's young population, and the increasing awareness of e-commerce are also all driving demand. While inflation has caused some...
