Report description:

On-trade spirits sales continued to see strong growth in 2022, while off-trade sales saw moderate growth, with a boost in the on-trade driven by the lifting of all COVID-19 restrictions in February 2022. However, the uncertainty brought on by the economic downturn and the war in Ukraine caused some consumers to be more careful about spending money in the off-trade. This saw many migrating to cheaper standard spirits, where they might have previously purchased a more premium brand. This has resul...
