Report description:

Despite the challenging economic circumstances, sugar confectionery has remained a popular and affordable indulgence option for consumers in Georgia, with solid retail volume and current value growth seen in 2023. However, the pace of growth is slowing due to the increase in unit prices, which is dampening demand to a degree. Nonetheless, the category is demonstrating its resilience in the face of industry-wide challenges. Indeed, sugar confectionery was least affected by the COVID-19 pandemic in...
