Report description:

The consumption of wine has increased considerably in Ecuador due to it being an accessible and fashionable beverage for aspirational consumers. In 2022, premium and economy wines are both gaining popularity. Higher income groups are less price sensitive and are becoming wine connoisseurs with a growing interest in different origins. Medium-high priced red wine is one of the best performers offered at over $40 per bottle. Economy wines are also gaining ground due to inflationary pressures caused...
