Report description:

Wine prices remained more resilient compared to other alcoholic drinks categories in 2022. This was thanks to a strong supply from previous years and fierce price competition from imported wine. This helped wine to stay competitive. Additionally, there was also a greater interest in cheaper wine, including multipacks and bag-in-box packs, while private label products also saw significant gains. However, sales of wine in the Czech Republic still declined in total volume terms in 2022 as many cons...
