Report description:

Beer sales have been accelerating in Colombia over the review period, and this is reflected in the improvement in per capita consumption. Colombians tend to be heavy drinkers especially at weekends, but this pattern is shifting towards more moderate and frequent consumption at home, as well as in the on-trade. This trend has underpinned a shift towards beer in metal cans, although mainly in the modern channel where they represent around 95% of beer sales. Consumers are more inclined to include b...
