Report description:

Ice cream sales are bouncing back in 2023 following a disastrous performance in the year prior, when the summer was much colder than normal and impulse purchases reduced substantially. Consequently, ice cream manufacturers were unable to fulfil their sales potential in 2022. Ice cream in Lithuania is heavily dependent on seasonal sales during the hot summer period. Sales in May 2023 are already much improved on 2022 levels due to hotter weather, which is having a positive impact on ice cream sal...
