Report description:

The growth of sweet biscuits in 2023 is driven by increased snacking habits among consumers in their homes. This trend is due to high inflation, discouraging people from going out for entertainment, focusing on home experiences instead. Furthermore, events such as major earthquakes, floods, critical election climate, and rising inflation have led some consumers to stay home longer. This has created a home environment where consumers are enjoying to gathering and spending time together. As a resu...
