Report description:

Rising inflation has been denting households' purchasing power and consumer spending in 2023. Nevertheless, despite certain shifts in consumer behaviour, willingness to spend on chocolate confectionery is still rising in 2023, and retail volume sales are set to continue to increase, whilst current value terms are projected to see exceptional growth due to price rises. By Western standards, chocolate confectionery has not reached maturity, since a high number of consumers have low purchasing power...
