Report description:

Sales of ice cream in Saudi Arabia were negatively impacted in 2020 by the emergence of the pandemic, which led to lockdowns, school closures (with children in general one of the main drivers of snacks in the local market) and limited mobility, with the latter particularly affecting foodservice demand. In 2023, total volume sales of ice cream continue to gain momentum, due to greater time spent outside of the home and a rapidly expanding population as restrictions in the country have eased. Whil...
