Report description:

Sales of spirits declined in off-trade and on-trade volume terms in 2022. The category experienced a strong rebound in demand in 2021 boosted by the easing of restrictions and consumers returning to on-trade outlets. However, with life in Lithuania becoming more stable in 2022 as COVID-19 fears subsided demand dipped again, returning to a similar growth pattern to that being seen before the pandemic. Nonetheless, the results were still mixed across the various categories. For instance, bitters s...
