Report description:

In 2022, depilatories recorded significant declines due to several factors. First, local consumers were generally more economical in terms of prioritising their purchases because of the impact of the war (including unemployment) and thus avoided products which were not considered essential (such as hair removers/bleaches, which recorded the strongest retail volume decline during the year). Second, millions of women left Ukraine in 2022 to escape the war, which began in February following the inv...
