Report description:

2023 is witnessing a small drop in volume sales for gum in Nigeria, continuing on from the sharper decline seen in the previous year, 2022. The decline is primarily driven by soaring unit prices, catalysed by persistent inflationary pressures in the economy that have diminished consumers' purchasing power and compelled them to focus on essential items.

Euromonitor International's Gum in Nigeria report offers in-depth knowledge of the market at a national level, providing local insight and understanding unavailable elsewhere. In addition to the latest retail sales data 2018-2022, it identifies the leading companies, brands and retail outlets, and assesses the key trends and demographic shifts behind consumer demand and sales growth. How key trends such as health and wellness, sustainability and recovery from the pandemic are shaping the market in <|Year|> directly informs our forecasts to 2027, clearly indicating how the market is expected to change.

Product coverage: Bubble Gum, Chewing Gum.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
