Report description:

In 2023, the market for sweet biscuits, snack bars and fruit snacks in Nigeria is witnessing moderate downturn in volume sales, continuing the significant decline that began in 2022. This trend was largely driven by enduring inflationary conditions - a result of the depreciation of the local currency, which has eroded consumer spending power. The state of affairs persists into 2023, albeit with a degree of stabilisation. The first quarter of the year was particularly impacted by a cash scarcity...
