Report description:

Sales of bath and shower products witnessed a surge in demand in 2020 following the outbreak of COVID-19 as consumers rushed to stock up on products including bar soap, liquid soap and hand sanitisers. Consumers saw these products as essential in reducing the risk of transmission while many households also stockpiled these products due to concerns over supply shortages. The category subsequently saw a sharp decline in sales in 2021 as restrictions were eased and stockpiling was no longer a signi...
