Report description:

In 2023, chocolate confectionery is witnessing low and stable retail volume growth, despite the ongoing inflationary pressures in Bosnia and Herzegovina. As seen during past financial crises, affordable treats, such as chocolate confectionery, can thrive under tough economic circumstances, as people look for small ways to indulge themselves in a more straitened existence. Chocolate confectionery continues to recover from the pandemic although total volumes are still below 2019 levels. By contrast...
