Report description:

Retail sales of home audio and cinema continued to decline in both volume and current value terms in 2023. The category is dominated by hi-fi systems and home cinema and speaker systems, demand for which is being undermined by the growing popularity of smartphones and streaming audio and video services. Just as importantly, wireless speakers (under portable players) are rapidly growing in popularity. These come in a range of different designs, sizes and price points, which makes them popular wit...
