Report description:

Home audio and cinema is set to register a decline in volume sales in 2023 as consumers are proving reluctant to spend on big ticket consumer electronics. Furthermore, some categories, such as digital media dock players and hi-fi systems, are becoming irrelevant as consumers replace them with products like wireless speakers and speakers which can be connected online to streaming services such as Spotify and Deezer for listening to music or podcasts. Other categories, such as audio separates, spe...
