Report description:

Retail volume sales of home audio and cinema continues to decline in 2023. Hi-fi systems and digital media player docks are increasingly unpopular among the Turkish population and are considered outdated. This sector is also challenged by the presence of high technology TVs with built-in sound systems. Downward movement in volume terms has been underway for the past decade, with some revival seen in 2021 when consumers paid more attention to their surroundings at home. Still, this uptick was not...
