Report description:

Home video experienced strong retail volume growth during the pandemic in 2021, when consumers had the opportunity to increase their discretionary expenditure, given the withdrawal from pension funds and direct government help. However, with most demand already met, and replacement sales not yet emerging, the category turned to significant decline in 2022, and this trend is set to continue in 2023, although with a much slower rate of decrease. Sales have therefore fallen below the pre-pandemic l...
