Report description:

In recent years, there has been a growing focus on the importance of the quality and duration of sleep for people's health and wellbeing, which has been reflected in popular books and the mainstream media. Research has included studies that have found a correlation between quality of sleep and Alzheimer's disease. As the concept of sleep hygiene has become more prominent, people have looked to create domestic environments that are more conducive to a good night's sleep. While in the past there w...
