Report description:

In recognition of its long-term decline, in-car entertainment manufacturers are limiting their investments and fewer launches are occurring. The lingering economic uncertainty following the pandemic, compounded by global inflation and the war in Ukraine continues to depress sales in 2023. The growing number of new electric cars in the country is also reducing demand for in-car entertainment as these come with in-built systems. Electric cars are growing in popularity due to their environmental be...
