Report description:

Smartphones continues to see a decline volume sales in Columbia in 2023, in tandem with the pressure on consumer purchasing power. The strong devaluation of the Colombian peso against the dollar has made these products more expensive, and this is affecting the premium segment in particular. Local consumers are also facing spiralling inflation, an increase in interest rates on credit cards and the removal of non-VAT days (Dias Sin IVA), special days in Colombia when certain products selected by t...
