Report description:

Savoury snacks continues to grow moderately in 2023 in retail volume terms, due to stable consumer demand in the post-pandemic period. Rising unit prices and inflation are the main contributing factors to the double-digit current value growth. However, consumption has been unaffected by higher prices, in a similar vein to the COVID-19 pandemic, with growth boosted by frequent key new product launches and high levels of innovation. Moreover, savoury snacks products are viewed as good alternatives...
