Report description:

While volume sales of sweet biscuits declined in 2022, inflationary pressures gave private label a jump in share in 2022; trends which are set to be maintained in 2023. Although more consumers have moved to shopping in discounters, some have moved to e-commerce for the sake of convenience. The twin habits of trading up to the consumption of craft cookies, and trading down to private label, show consumers are willing to forego their brand loyalties. Habit persistence and slow-to-ebb price increas...
