Report description:

Portable players continued to see positive growth in retail volume terms in 2023. The category is dominated by wireless speakers, which are highly compatible with busy, "on-the-go" lifestyles, particularly since the removal of restrictions associated with COVID-19. During the review period, growth in wireless speakers was also driven by the growing popularity of music streaming services and other media applications, which makes them an attractive option for many consumers. Despite shrinking hous...
